Personal Portfolio Website Plan

Your Name: Dillon Anderson

Ideas for your website

Determine how you will use your personal portfolio website to showcase your skills.

Idea 1: Accessibility, functional yet also adding higher quality detail as well as lower quality detail for clients on both sides of the specturm.

Idea 2:Fun ways to show how to navigate through a website (this will grow over the years)

Idea 3: A picture of me/bio and background of myself as well as how and why I got into web development and coding

Idea 4: Throw in a data driven section on how web development can improve your business

Idea 5: Contact information section with references to past clients (if permission is given) as well as former professors
